

AmCham EU is supportive of efforts to address tax evasion. Measures need to be carefully and appropriately targeted to ensure meaningful and worthwhile reporting occurs and not unnecessary reporting. The definition of intermediary must also be appropriately targeted and reporting by them be of information they hold. AmCham EU would be willing to contribute to further work.