

INFORMATION - Cyprus

Use and Enjoyment - VAT Directive 2006/112/EC - Article 59a

In Cyprus, the use and enjoyment rule applies to telecommunications, broadcasting and electronic services provided to Non EU non-VAT taxable persons in non EU, according to which services that would otherwise be taxable outside the EU but are used and enjoyed within Cyprus, are subject to Cyprus VAT.

Reference to the above may be found in paragraph 18 of the Thirteen Schedule of the Cypriot VAT Law.

Time of supply / chargeability - Deferment and Cash Accounting Scheme - VAT Directive 2006/112/EC - Article 66

In Cyprus, telecommunications, broadcasting and electronic services provided to non-VAT taxable persons may become taxable when payment is received. The cash accounting scheme may be applied by businesses supplying telecommunications, broadcasting and electronic services insofar as their turnover is below EUR 25,000 in the past 12 months.

Reference to the above may be found in Article 42E of the Cypriot VAT Law.

Time of supply / chargeability - Continuous supplies - VAT Directive 2006/112/EC - Article 64(2)

In Cyprus, the supply of services for which VAT is payable by the recipient under the provisions of Article 11 and which:

- (a) are carried out continuously for a period of more than a year; and
  - (b) does not involve partial payments on account or payments during this period,
- are deemed to be completed at the end of each calendar year, for as long as the services are supplied.

Reference to the above may be found in Article 9 para (14B) of the Cypriot VAT Law.

Re-valuation of services at open market value - VAT Directive 2006/112/EC - Article 80

Cyprus has implemented provisions in its VAT legislation pursuant to which the taxable amount of all supplies (including telecommunications, broadcasting and electronic services provided to non-VAT taxable persons) may be deemed to be at open market value.

Reference to the above may be found under paragraph 1 of Part I of the Fourth Schedule of the Cypriot VAT Law.

Bad Debt relief - VAT Directive 2006/112/EC - Article 90

In Cyprus, bad debt relief can be claimed provided that:

- The VAT on the supply has been paid to the VAT authorities;
- The consideration for the supply has been written off in the vendor's records as a bad debt;
- All necessary steps to recover the consideration have been taken; and
- A period of 12 months has elapsed from the day of the supply.

A claim must be made within a period of 4 years following the later of:

- The date on which the consideration which has been written off as a bad debt becomes due and payable; or
- The date of supply.

Reference to the above may be found in Article 27 of the Cypriot VAT Law and Regulations 89-103 of the Value Added Tax General Regulations of 2000, No 314/2001 as amended.
