

Guarantee

eLearning module

This easy-to-use eLearning module is one of the courses from an extensive UCC EU eLearning programme. It provides fundamental knowledge in the domain of guarantee and the related procedures as defined by the Union Customs Code \(UCC\).

To fully benefit of the potential of this course, we recommend to integrate the course in your own training programme and to develop a full blended learning programme.

Target audience

Customs professionals in the public and private sector who need to understand when guarantees are required and how they can be provided.

Available languages

For the availability of further language versions, consult the table on the EUROPA website.

Learning objectives

By the end of this 60-minute course, you will have learned about:

- the concept of a guarantee and why it is necessary;
- what a compulsory guarantee is;
- what a comprehensive guarantee and an individual guarantee is;
- how a reference amount is established and the reduced guarantee amount is calculated;
- the different forms in which a guarantee may be provided;
- the processes and procedures related to a guarantee.

Particularities of this course

Before starting section 5 related to the guarantee management, make sure you have well understood the difference between individual and comprehensive guarantee (section 3).

General features

You may interrupt your course. When reopening the course you can resume where you have left the course off. The completed sections are indicated in yellow in the menu.

A course summary of the most relevant information is made available in a printable format in the course library

How were the courses developed?

This UCC EU eLearning programme can be followed as a complete programme.

However, the modules are designed to allow the selection of single module in function of your professional competency needs.

The courses were developed under the Customs 2020 Programme. The UCC eLearning programme content was created by a project team comprised of a pool of customs experts from national administrations and private sector in close collaboration with the Taxation and Customs Union Directorate General of the European Commission.
