

The Union of Finance Personnel in Europe (UFE) was founded in 1963 as the European umbrella organization for national professional associations of tax and customs officers. Since its inception, UFE has been dedicated to upholding our shared professional ethos: tax and customs justice. Representing the trade union interests of employees across all ranks of the tax and customs administration authorities in Europe, UFE unites over 400,000 members from 40 member unions in more than 20 countries.
